

There is a Chinese saying, “a good start is halfway to success.” Dr. Angela C. Wu and the entire Wu’s

Healing Center staff wish to offer you the precious gift of how to properly start this year on the Lunar New Year’s Day (solar calendar February 16th, 2018). This first step on that day plays a significant role for the rest of year. Both the timing and direction of your initial exit from wherever you are on February 16th, 2018 are of utmost importance.

This is what to do on that day:

On the morning of February 16th, 2018 pay special attention to personal hygiene and the initial exit direction from the building in which you are. The most auspicious time to go out is between 12am to 1am, 3 am to 7 am and 9am to 3pm. To welcome good luck, walk in the Northeast direction. To invite divine help, walk in the Southwest or Southeast direction. To invite wealth-spirit, walk in the North direction.

If you would like to burn incense or pray, please do so between 12am to 1am, 3am to 7 am and 11am to 3pm.

If you live or stay in an apartment building, walk in the desired direction at these following exits: your bedroom, front door, elevator (if your building has one), and finally the door to the outside.

Please Share this gift with your family and friends!
