

A Special Gift from Wu's Healing Center for 2021

There is a Chinese saying, “a good start is halfway to success.” Dr. Angela C. Wu and the entire Wu’s Healing Center staff wish to offer you the precious gift of how to properly start this year on the Lunar New Year’s Day (solar calendar Friday, February 12th, 2021). This first step on that day plays a significant role for the rest of year. Both the timing and direction of your initial exit from wherever you are on February 12th, 2021 are of utmost importance.

This is what to do on that day:

On the morning of February 12th, 2021 pay special attention to personal hygiene and the initial exit direction from the building in which you are. The most auspicious time to go out is between 1am to 7am. To welcome good luck, walk in the SouthWest direction. To welcome divine help, walk in the NorthEast direction. To invite wealth-spirit, walk in the East direction.

If you would like to burn incense or pray, please do so between 1am to 7 am.

PLEASE DO NOT FACE NORTH, NORTHWEST AND SOUTH DIRECTION!

If you live or stay in an apartment building, walk in the desired direction at these following exits: your bedroom, front door, elevator (if your building has one), and finally the door to the outside.

Please Share this gift with your family and friends!
