

A Special Gift from Wu's Healing Center for 2022

There is a Chinese saying, “a good start is halfway to success.” Dr. Angela C. Wu and the entire Wu's Healing Center staff wish to offer you the precious gift of how to properly start this year on the Lunar New Year's Day (solar calendar Monday, February 01st, 2022). This first step on that day plays a significant role for the rest of the year. Both the timing and direction of your initial exit from wherever you are on February 01st, 2022 are of utmost importance.

This is what to do on that day:

On the morning of February 01st, 2022 pay special attention to personal hygiene and the initial exit direction from the building in which you are. The most auspicious time to go out is between 12am and 3am, and between 7am to 9am. To welcome divine help, walk in the SouthWest direction. To invite wealth-spirit, walk in the SouthEast direction.

If you would like to burn incense or pray, please do so between 12am to 3 am, and between 7am to 11am .

PLEASE DO NOT MAKE YOUR INITIAL EXIT OR BURN INCENSE BETWEEN 3AM TO 5AM, AND BETWEEN 11AM TO 3PM.

PLEASE DO NOT FACE THE NORTHWEST DIRECTION!

If you live or stay in an apartment building, walk in the desired direction at these following exits: your bedroom, front door, elevator (if your building has one), and finally the door to the outside.

Please Share this gift with your family and friends!
